

European Robotics Forum

Odense, Denmark

5th - 7th March 2012

Save the date!

The European Robotics Forum 2012 in Odense, Denmark, is the event you can't miss.

This 3-day event, from March 5th to 7th 2012, gives you access to the latest news concerning research and business and the opportunity to attend community organized workshops and conferences.

The European Robotics Forum, organized by the European robotic networks EURON, EUROP, the euRobotics Coordination Action and hosted by The Danish Technological Institute, is in the field of robotics the meeting point for engineers, scientists and business people from all over Europe.

REGISTER here !

The price for participation at the European Robotics Forum 2012 is 200 Euro incl. VAT until 20th February and 250 Euro incl. VAT after the 20th February.

The price includes participation at the forum including lunch and coffee breaks all three days. Furthermore the fee includes an evening reception at the town hall of Odense the 5th March, gala evening the 6th

March and access to a State of the Art Robotic Exhibition at Brandts Klædefabrik.

Please take advantage of this opportunity and participate, contribute and have your voice heard at the European Robotics Event 2012 in Odense.